

envida

envida moves people....

We drive you or we can reimburse mileage for a family member or friend to drive you. Appointments must be with a registered Medicaid provider for

- Physical health
- Mental health
- Substance use

envida cares for people....

We provide in-home support services with bonded and insured caregivers, including family members, for

- personal care
- homemaker services
- protective services

envida is a nonprofit serving El Paso, Teller, Park, and surrounding counties. Services in Teller and Park are available primarily to Health First Colorado members.

For more information on these or other services, please visit www.envidacares.org or call 719-633-4601.